RICBA Program Evaluation

The Rhode Island Children's Book Award committee nominates titles using specific selection criteria. These criteria guide the selection process as the committee reviews over one hundred books that are appropriate for children in grades 3-5. The committee considers fiction and non-fiction titles that are diverse and represent a variety of genres but are limited to reviewing titles that have been published during the last two years by an author currently living in the United States.

4. How did you learn about the RI Children's Book Award Program? Please select all that apply.
